Notes

1. Only holders of ordinary shares, or their duly appointed representatives, are entitled to attend and vote at the meeting.
2. You can appoint the Chairman of the Annual General Meeting (AGM) or anyone else to be your proxy at the AGM. You can also, if you wish, appoint more than one proxy provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by you.
 - To appoint the Chairman as your sole proxy in respect of all your ordinary shares, complete any voting instructions but leave all other proxy appointment details blank.
 - To appoint a single proxy in respect of all your ordinary shares other than the Chairman, delete only the words 'the Chairman of the Annual General Meeting' and insert the name of your proxy (who need not be a shareholder of the Company) and may be obtained by contacting the registrar or yourself photocopy the Form of Proxy. Please indicate in the box next to the proxy holder's name, the number of shares in relation to which you authorise them to act as your proxy and complete any voting instructions. Please also indicate by ticking the box provided on the Form of Proxy, if the proxy instruction is one of multiple instructions being given. All Forms of Proxy should be returned together in the same envelope.
 - 3. The Form of Proxy gives your proxy or proxies full rights to attend, speak and vote at the AGM.
 - 4. The right to appoint a proxy does not apply to persons whose shares are held on their behalf by another person and who have been nominated to receive communication from the Company in accordance with Section 146 of the Companies Act 2006 (Nominated persons). Nominated persons may have a right under an agreement with the registered shareholder who holds shares on their behalf to be appointed (or to have someone else appointed) as a proxy. Alternatively, if nominated persons do not have such a right, or do not wish to exercise it, they may have a right under such an agreement to give instructions to the person holding the shares as to the exercise of voting rights.
 - 5. If the Form of Proxy is signed by someone else on your behalf, their authority to sign must be returned with the Form of Proxy. If the shareholder is a corporation, the Form of Proxy must be executed under its common seal or signed by an officer or attorney or other person duly authorised by the corporation.

Changes to entries on the Register for certified or uncertificated shares of the Company after the Specified Time shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to attend or vote at the AGM. Should the AGM be adjourned to a time not more than 48 hours after the Specified Time, that time will also apply for the purpose of determining the entitlement of members to attend and vote (and for the purpose of determining the number of votes they may cast) at the adjourned AGM. Should the AGM be adjourned for a longer period, to be so entitled members must have been entered on the Register by 6.30pm on the day which is two business days prior to the adjourned AGM or, if the Company gives notice of the adjourned AGM, at the time specified in such notice.

 - 10. If you appoint multiple proxies and wish to give them separate instructions to vote or abstain from voting, please indicate how you wish each proxy to vote or abstain from voting by writing in each appropriate box the name of the proxy and the number of ordinary shares to be voted or withheld from voting by him or her.
 - 11. The 'Vote withheld' option on the Form of Proxy is provided to enable you to abstain on any particular resolution. However, a vote withheld is not a vote in law and will not be counted in the calculation of the proportion of votes 'For' and 'Against' a resolution.
